Hi All and welcome to Senior Wac Arts.

On the 26th March we will be performing our work to the public. Running times will include 2-4pm mini film festival, 6-7.15pm installation work around the atrium and arts block, 7.30pm final performances and certificates in the main hall.

Also, as its Mothers day, from 4-6pm in the back of the atrium we will be having a special Mothers day afternoon tea with treats and interactive opportunities. This will cost £5 and all cake drinks and activities will be included in the price so this is a perfect Mothers day gift, and she can stay behind after and see you perform. Also, from 4-5pm Simon Callow and Simon Mayo will be holding a live interview and if your Mum is a fan then you can also book in to see them and make a truly memorable day/gift.

Please note if you plan to invite family and friends to the show or the Mothers day event or the two Simon's interview then you will need to book a ticket on Eventbrite:
