Wac Arts

Celebrating 40 years of empowering young people through the arts

Welcome to Wac Arts

Welcome back to all returning students and a very warm welcome to all new students

If you have any questions or would like to try out for other classes then please speak to Steve.

Make sure you keep an eye on the newsletter each week as cheap or free tickets for shows are often made available to us, plus we sometimes receive casting opportunities and this is where you will find out about them first.

Over the next term we will be looking at developing a student led set of activities, performances and forums throughout the year. It's a wonderful opportunity to develop new skills and gain experience in a wide variety of practices including programming, producing and governance. New projects this group will contribute to include the development of the Atrium space at weekends, regular Open mic and DJ sessions plus joining the Youth Voice project that represents Wac Arts. If you would like to be part of the group then please come and speak to Steve today.

Please note that on the last day of term (Dec 2nd) we are having our annual cabaret fundraiser, which this year is curated by director Jonathan Butterell, the creative force behind hit west end show Everybody's talking about Jamie. We aim to have as many senior students as possible involved but if you cannot be here on that evening then please let your tutor know.

Trafalgar Entertainment will be rehearsing the Rocky Horror Show here at Wac Arts and are happy for a student to join them as an unpaid rehearsal assistant on either the week of Mon 19th Nov – 23rd Nov or Mon 26th Nov – 30th Nov. If you would like to take up this opportunity then please speak to Steve.
