

Press Release: February 2019

Wac Arts Invites the Camden Community to the February Fun Run!

- A team of 15 will run nearly 200 miles in the London Landmarks Half Marathon to support Wac Arts.
- Wac Arts will help raise awareness of baby charity 'Tommys' who fund research to save babies lives.

The London Landmarks Half Marathon will be taking place on Sunday 24th March and the team will run through the city's most well known landmarks, starting at Pall Mall and making their way through amazing views of London e.g. the Shard, Big Ben and the London Eye.

The running team are made up of employees, parents, trustees and students of Wac Arts who are aiming to raise an astonishing £500 each. All of the money raised will go towards supporting the essential programmes that empower young people to change their world through the arts.

As well as a running team, our students will also be entertaining the crowd with an exciting 30 minute performance of vibrant and uplifting songs. It's going to be a brilliant day for everyone getting involved – all running for two great causes.

Note to Editors:

Wac Arts believes in the infinite power of the arts to unleash the extraordinary potential of young people.

The charity offers fully inclusive weekend, evening and holiday programmes that celebrate diversity, with classes significantly subsidised to make them accessible to all young people aged 5-26 (30 for some programmes).

62% of young people that benefit from Wac Arts live within the borough of Camden.
