

Press Release: Monday 12th November 2018

Wac Arts Continues their Birthday Celebration Year with a FREE show

As part of Wac Arts' 40th birthday celebration year, the full-time professional training students are putting on a free show for the community at the Arts and Media School Islington (ASMI) in Finsbury Park. There are three performances to choose from and tickets can be reserved online.

Wac Arts Showcase

Thursday 29th November at 7pm

This hour long showcase (no interval) is inspired by Spanish and Latin American culture, including Flamenco dance, singing and extracts from Lorca's Blood Wedding.

Tickets for Showcase

Road

Friday 30th November @ 1pm (Matinee)

Friday 30th November @ 7pm

Jim Cartwright's Road, a sharp, sad, funny and angry play about a small, depressed Lancashire town and its people.

Directed by Ben Bennett. Show length 1 hr (no interval).

Tickets for Road

The third year professional training students are preparing to graduate and become professionals in the performing arts industry. The recommended age for Road is 13+, due to the strong language used throughout the show.

Wac Arts has been offering transformational arts training to young people for 40 years. The showcase is part of the year long birthday celebration schedule.

To read more about Wac Art's offer, mission and rich history please go to www.wacarts.co.uk

Press Release: Monday 12th November 2018

Notes to editors

About Wac Arts:

Wac Arts believes in the infinite power of the arts to unleash the extraordinary potential of young people.

The charity offers fully inclusive weekend, evening and holiday programmes that celebrate diversity, with classes significantly subsidised to make them accessible to all young people aged 5-30.

62% of young people that benefit from Wac Arts live within the borough of Camden.

“Wac Arts means an expanded life. A better life”
John Gaine, Wac Arts Disability and Inclusion Ambassador

Wac Arts home, the Old Town Hall is now a creative hub where young people build confidence, artists connect, and other arts and cultural organisations such as University of the Third Age and Akademi South Asian Dance call home.

For further information on Wac Arts, the 40th Birthday Events Schedule or the Old Town Hall please contact hayley.butler@wacarts.co.uk or call 020 7692 5807.