Welcome to Wac Arts.

If you are a returning student then hope you had a good summer and welcome back. If you are a new student then welcome and hope you enjoy your journey. You will have been allocated specific classes but if you would like to be reconsidered for a different class then please speak to Steve at the front desk.

Open house. This week we are part of the open house festival so you will see a number of other people touring the building to learn about its rich history. If you would like to take part in one of the tours then just speak to the front desk and they are at; 11am, 1pm and 3pm.

Chiaroscuro at the Bush theatre. Starring our very own singing tutor Anoushka, tickets are available with promo code BUSH10 which gives £10 tickets to performances between 7/9 - 14/9 inclusive, subject to availability.

Tambores Livres Workshop.

On October 6th we will be hosting within our Afro fusion classes a specialist workshop on Capoeira and the Berimbau (Brazilian carnival music and dance) delivered by Tambores Livres. This one off workshop is open to all students just express your interest at the front desk.

Dance technique/body conditioning class. Is a class we are looking at introducing to support students dance and movement study and overall general fitness. If this is a class you would like to participate in then please fill in the section overleaf and return to front desk.

Any questions then please ask Steve or the front desk.

Best wishes
