Wac Arts

Dear Applicant,

The Receptionist/Administrator position plays a key role in Front of House Team at Wac Arts, undertaking a mixture of administration, customer service and practical tasks. The postholder will work closely with other receptionists and Building Services' Assistants, providing front of house/reception duties.

For more than 45-years, Wac Arts has delivered an accessible Arts Programme engaging an estimated 30,000 children and young people. We are experts in working with those from diverse backgrounds, bringing together young participants with different abilities, genders, ethnicities, cultures, religions and lived experience to take part and learn together. Continuing to build on its success, the charity is now looking forward to an exciting future with the ambition to continue to build its affordable arts programme.

The role is offered on a permanent, part-time basis and requires some weekend and evening work. You must be passionate about the work we do and able to connect with young creative people.

We would particularly welcome candidates from the global majority who could provide the team the diversity in thoughts, lived experiences and skillsets that match the diverse community Wac Arts serves across London.

This pack contains further information about Wac Arts and the role. If you would like to have an informal chat about this opportunity, or have any queries, please feel free to contact us on recruitment@wacarts.co.uk.

We look forward to receiving your application.

Kind regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read 'Ann Main', is positioned above the printed name.

Ann Main
