

Why would you like to take this role with Wac Arts? What excited you about working with our arts organisation?

What strategic, interpersonal skills and relationship building attributes do you think you'd bring to the role (please refer to the job description)?

What are the key elements, do you think, that are needed to effectively manage and coordinate various tasks in an environment which has ever changing priorities?